

Family time

When we started quarantine it was the end of March. I didn't do a whole lot till April 19th.

April 19th was my 14th birthday. My sister was able to come over so I could have a birthday dinner. It was rough not being able to see anyone or do anything.